Cheques should be made payable to The Geological Society. If you cannot send a cheque, please email enquiries@geolsoc.org.uk, marking your email for the attention of the Fellowship Services Manager.

After approval by the Chartership Committee, your name will be passed to the European Federation of Geologists for formal election. Elections are held four times a year normally in. Following election, a EurGeol title number and certificate will be issued.

Each year after your election you will be sent a letter reminding you to complete your online CPD records for the previous year. Those elected in the first half of a year will be required to complete a CPD record for that year, but those elected in the second half of the year can start recording CPD in the following year.
