The Geological Society of London on behalf of the Books Editorial Committee retracts the following publication:

Hallarou, M. M., Konaté, M., Olatunji, A. S. and Ahmed, Y. 2020. The Paleoproterozoic porphyry copper–molybdenum deposit of Kourki (Liptako Province, western Niger). Geological Society, London, Special Publications, 502, 97–119, <https://doi.org/10.1144/SP502-2019-139>

This article is retracted after copyrighted content was used without proper acknowledgement or permission. Data were also mislabelled and, as such, are presenting false data within the article. Further investigation identified substantial issues with the article’s figures. Figures 5 and 7 contain material that was reproduced without appropriate permission. Additionally, the material presented in these figures was incorrectly attributed, with the source material originating from the Bled M’Dena complex, Algeria.

The publisher is retracting this article at the request of the authors and with the agreement of the Books Editorial Committee. All parties are in agreement and apologize to the readers of Special Publications. The Geological Society of London is a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) and is acting in accordance with the guidelines of COPE.
