

Earth Science Week Photography Competition

The Geological Society

serving science, profession & society

Terms and conditions

1. The competition is open to all.
2. Entrants can submit as many photographs as they wish, electronically, in colour or black and white.
3. Images also submitted to other competitions (for example the Joint Regional Groups Photography Competition) are allowed.
4. Images previously submitted to Geological Society competitions are allowed, provided they haven't featured as winners.
5. Each entry should be marked with name, address, title of image and a short description.
6. Entries should be emailed to outreach@geolsoc.org.uk, subject heading 'Photo Competition.'
7. Images must be landscape format, with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi, and large enough to be featured in a print calendar (minimum dimensions: 216mm x 154 mm)
8. The competition closes at 9am on Monday 23rd September 2019.
9. 12 winners will be chosen, to feature in our 2020 calendar. 3 of the 12 will also be awarded first, second and third prizes of £100, £50 and £25 respectively.
10. All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe the rights of any other party. The entrants must be the sole owner of copyright in all photographs entered and must have obtained permission of any people featured in the entries or their parents/guardians if children under 16 are featured. Entrants must not have breached any laws when taking their photographs.
11. Entrants will retain copyright in the photographs that they submit. By entering the competition all entrants grant to the Geological Society the right to publish and sell their photographs, with full credit given, in the 2020 Geological Society calendar. Entrants also allow the Geological Society to publish and exhibit images on the Geological Society's website, social media channels, in Geoscientist magazine and in other relevant marketing materials.

12. The Geological Society reserves the right to crop/resize images if necessary for inclusion in the 2020 Calendar or for display purposes.
