

The Geological Society

servicing science & profession

Lyell Meeting 2012

Big Palaeontology

29th March 2012

Programme

09.00	Registration & coffee
09.30	Ancient Human Occupation of Britain Chris Stringer, Natural History Museum
10.05	Chronology, climate and the appearance of modern humans in Western Europe Rob Dinnis, The British Museum
10.20	Thirty years of field-based Big Palaeontology on Cenozoic shallow marine ecosystems Ken Johnson, Natural History Museum
10.55	Environmental reconstruction of a Burdigalian-Langhian patch reef (East Kalimantan, Indonesia) Vibor Novak, Netherlands Centre for Biodiversity Naturalis,
11.10	Tea & coffee
11.40	IODP Wilkes Land Glacial History Peter Bijl, Utrecht University
12.10	Tanzanian Drilling Project Bridget Wade, University of Leeds
12.40	UK Type fossil database Mike Howe, BGS
13.00	Lunch (no lunch provided for delegates)
14.00	Palaeobiology in the Age of Biodiversity Informatics Wolfgang Kiessling, Museum für Naturkunde, Berlin
14.30	Cretaceous vertebrate diversity (PBDB) Paul Upchurch, University College London
15.00	Imaging and Virtual Palaeontology Mark Sutton, Imperial College London
13.30	Tea & coffee

16.00	Co-evolution of Life and the Planet Richard Twitchett, Plymouth University
16.30	The Dorset and East Devon Coast World Heritage Site Richard Edmonds, Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site
17.00	Panel discussion Al Fraser (Chair), Imperial College London
17.30	Reception