

Suggested Reading List for ‘CCS – Capturing Global Opportunities and injecting fresh energy into the oil and gas industry?’ – Paul Garnham, CCS Project Manager, Shell

Wednesday 29 May 2013

This reading list can also be found on the following web page.

<http://www.geolsoc.org.uk/carbonstorage>

1. Introduction to carbon capture and storage (CCS) – British Geological Survey
<http://www.bgs.ac.uk/discoveringGeology/climateChange/CCS/home.html>
2. DECC Policy, News and Updates on Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS).
<https://www.gov.uk/government/policies/increasing-the-use-of-low-carbon-technologies/supporting-pages/carbon-capture-and-storage-ccs>
3. The Carbon Capture and Storage Association Website
<http://www.ccsassociation.org/>
4. The Guardian, Environment – Carbon Capture and Storage
<http://www.guardian.co.uk/environment/carbon-capture-and-storage>
5. The Crown Estate – CCS report supports government ambition
<http://www.thecrownestate.co.uk/news-media/news/2013/ccs-report-supports-government-ambition/>
6. House of Commons Library – Carbon Capture and Storage
<http://www.parliament.uk/Templates/BriefingPapers/Pages/BPPdfDownload.aspx?p-id=SN05086>
7. Carbon Capture and Storage Conference, 2011, The Geological Society
<http://www.geolsoc.org.uk/Events/Past-Meeting-Resources/Carbon-Capture-and-Storage>
8. UK Energy Research Centre – Carbon Capture and Storage – Realising the Potential?
http://www.ukerc.ac.uk/support/tiki-index.php?page=ES_RP_SystemsCCS

9. Shell Scenarios: how the role for CCS fits in with the Energy Challenge. Exploring how economic, political and social forces might shape the Global Energy System and Environment over the 21st Century.

<http://www.shell.com/global/future-energy/scenarios.html>

10. Haszeldine R.S. 2013: In the pipeline; The House magazine. Mid-term review of energy policy. pp 35 - 36 No. 1443, February 2013. (Last of three articles).

http://www.geos.ed.ac.uk/research/subsurface/diagenesis/CCS_Mid-Term_Review_UK_Energy_policy,_House_Magazine_1443_pp_35-36_Feb_2013.pdf

11. Roger Pielke Jr's Blog – The Importance of Carbon Capture to the Climate Debate

<http://rogerpielkejr.blogspot.co.uk/2013/04/the-importance-of-carbon-capture-to.html>

12. An Inconvenient Truth: The Planetary Emergency of Global Warming and What We Can Do About - a 2006 book by Al Gore released in conjunction with the film An Inconvenient Truth